

Data Centres Slough Trading Estate

BCAL Consulting were delighted to have been chosen by SEGRO to provide CDM Co-ordinator services on the construction of a number of data centres on the Trading Estate in Slough.

The data centres are of steel frame construction with profiled sheet cladding and roofing systems.

All achieve the high standard of finish required in a building that will house sensitive electronic data equipment.

